THE EASTERN SHORE. THE NEWS FROM ACROSS THE

CHESAPEAKE BAY. Death of a Respected Citizen of Northampton-A Marriage-A Fish Postponed-Personal and Political.

ONANCOCK, VA., October 10.-(Special.)-Information has reached here of the death of Mr. James B. Dalby, at his near Capeville, in the southern part of Northampton. He was in his 76th year, and had been in failing health for some time. Mr. Dalby was one of the most intelligent and highly-esteemed citizens of the Eastern Shore. He was a warm personal friend of the late ex-Governor Henry A. Wise, to whom he was warmly attached; and he also enjoyed the friendship of such men as Judge Abel P. Upshur, Hon. Thomas H. Bayly, and Governor Littleton Waller Taxewell. He was for a number of years County Superintendent of Schools in Northampton, and manifested much interest in the success of the public and private schools of the Eastern Shore.

Mr. Daiby was an old Virginia gentleman, given to hospitality, kind of heart true to his friends, and strongly attached to his native State. He leaves hosts of friends to mourn his death,

A FISH STORY.

Mr. E. T. Somers, of Accomac, is a member of the Cincinnati Enquirer Household Club, which every year has an outing for several days. This season the trip was to Lake Huron, and prizes were awarded by the proprietor of that paper to the best fishermen of the club. Mr. Somers entered the conthe club. Mr. Somers entered the con-test, and won the prize, catching forty-two fish in 1 hour and 56 minutes, beattwo fish in I hour and 36 minutes, beating his closest competitor by ten fish.

Mr. J. C. Rowles, foreman in the office of the Peninsular Enterprise, at Accomac Courthouse, and Miss Elizabeth Cillet Scarburgh, of that place, were married Wednesday evening in Pocomoke City, Md., Elder J. Manning Dunaway, city, Md., Edger J. Manning Dunaway, pastor of the Drummondtown Baptist church, officiating. The bride, who is a very attractive young lady, is the daughter of Dr. George T. Scarburgh. The Rev. W. P. Wright is about to The Rev. W. F. Wright is about to close the fourth year of his service as presiding elder of the Southern Method-ist churches on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia. According to the rules of his Church, he will have to be transferred to another field of labor. FAIR POSTPONED.

Owing to the prevailing hard times, the Owing to the prevailing mara times, the proposed fair for the benefit of the Harmanson-West Camp of Confederate Veterans has been postponed to another year. The Rev. A. J. Reamy, who recently resigned the pastorate of the Onancock Raptist church, moved yesterday, with his family, to Modest Town, in the northern part of Accomac, where he has ac

The formation of Democratic clubs in this section goes bravely on. Congress-man Jones and other speakers are how addressing large and enthusiastic crowds in the various parts of the Eastern Shore, and are making things hot for the Re-publicans and the Republican Aid So-

WIND-STORM INSURANCE.

The severe storm which visited Richmond September 28th, doing GREAT DAMAGE to property of all kinds, shows the necessity of INSURANCE covering loss from WIND-STORMS, CYCLONES, AND TORNADOES.

Several of Richmond's property-owners were fortunate enough to hold WIND-STORM policies in the HOME INSURANCE, OF NEW YORK.

and will be paid in full for all losses sus-tained to property insured in the "HOME."

The recent storm was foretold by the

The recent storm was foretold by the Westher Eureau, but no one expected such terrible results.

The newspapers are filled with reports of lives lost and valuable property destroyed.

TORNADOES,

may come at any time, as has been proven, and all property-owners should take warning by the recent storm and protect themselves from further loss.

THE COST OF SUCH INSURANCE IS VERY LOW.
